Mrs. Baar said: "The constant thought of being idle must have unlinged his mind. While we are not wealthy, we are not in want, and as our boys are all working at good wages, there was be danger of our suffering for the necessaries of life. My husband had talked of suicide on several occasions, but we never thought he seriously contemplated any such act.

Mrs. Baar and several of her children attended an entertainment at Lemp's Furk Hall Wednesday night. They returned home at midnight and found Baar asleep. They retired shortly afterward. Owing to the lateness of the hour at which they retired, they slept very soundly and did not notice the father and husband when he arose and went to the room to take his life. When his body was discovered a doctor was called, but Baar was dead.

An inquest will be held to-day.

JOHN CLARK CONVICTED.

Sentenced to Two Years' Imprisonment for Manslaughter.

John Clark, who shot and killed James Silk, was found guilty of manslaughter in the fourth degree by a jury yesterday and sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary. It was considered a victory for the detense, which would have been willing at the outset to take a plea to murder in the second degree with a ten-year settence. Judge Fisher, before whem the case was tried, presented his instructions to the jury yesterday morning, all the evidence being in on Wednesday evening. The attorney for the prosecution around the case until noon, when it was presented to the jury had reached an agreement. Judge Fisher read the vordiet, which found that the jury had reached an agreement. Judge Fisher read the vordiet, which found that ke gulty of manslaughter, and assessed his punishment at two years imprisonment. It was not stated where Clark was to be imprisoned, and Judge Fisher ordered him back to correst their verdict, making it read two years their verdict, making and the case until the provided and a fixture of hardened the caned to the feature of the beauty of the feature of the beauty of the feature of the bea sentenced to serve two years in the peni-
